The survival of a parish relies on the generosity of its parishioners' time, talents and treasures. Without such generosity, we, as a parish church, could not function. The good Lord rewards you for your generosity and sacrifice. Thank you to those who faithfully use their envelopes in church, and those who catch up by sending in their donations each week through the mail or dropping them off in the Rectory. We are also very grateful to our ministries who keep the people of our parish actively involved. And lastly, thank you to our selfless volunteers who always assist us in every way they can. OLV Parish is truly blessed.

Excerpt from Rejoice in the Lord

Vol. 6. No. 8

My dear sisters and brothers in Christ,

In this season of joy, we become aware once again that God is closer to us than we dare admit. Through the incarnation of Jesus, the Word made flesh, the immense, all-powerful, all-knowing God who created the universe has become Emmanuel (God-with-us). God's most profound intervention in human history—and in the lives of each one of us—shows beyond any doubt how much God cares for us. The fact that Jesus is born so humbly, in a stable surrounded by his loving family and by social outcasts (shepherds) and domestic animals, is a scandal by any human standard. We are conditioned to look for God among the wealthy and powerful, the "important people" who govern our society, who drive our economy and who control institutions of influence such as the media, our businesses, schools, social service and cultural institutions, and, yes, the Church.

But God surprises us. God inverts our values, showing us that the first will be last, the lowly will be raised up, the rich will be sent away empty, and the poor will inherit the Earth and all its treasures.

Christmas is a season of joy and hope. It's a time for giving and sharing all that we have received from God's abundance. The material gifts that we exchange at Christmas are symbols of the much deeper sharing God invites us to embrace. We are called to follow God's example, gratefully giving ourselves out of love for God and the human family. Have a Merry Christmas and God's peace in the New Year!

Sincerely yours in Christ the Redeemer,
Cardinal Joseph W. Tobin, C.Ss.R., Archbishop of Newark

"Darkness cannot drive out darkness; only light can do that. Hate cannot drive out hate; only love can do that. The best way to find yourself is to lose yourself in the service of others."

- St. Stephen (December 26)

Week of December 21, 2025

The Story of Christmas | Benjamin Cello Christmas Special

In this special hour-long television event, Benjamin Cello and his friends travel to Pennywhistle Park for a spectacular shadow puppet retelling of "The Story of Christmas" by Brother Joseph and "The Shadow of His Wings" puppet theater.

Christmas | Sacred Art

Join Dr. Ben Akers and Taylor Kemp as they look at the painting Adoration of the Shepherds by Gerard van Honthorst to celebrate the Nativity of our Lord. This famous painting reveals the Christ Child as the light that has come into the world and also depicts the Blessed Mother, St. Joseph, and the shepherds to be models of adoration to our humble Lord who came as a helpless baby.

What Catholics Believe About Christmas: Traditions, Santa Claus

Join Dr. Michael Barber as he answers some of the Internet's most popular questions about Christmas. What are the 12 days of Christmas? Was Santa Claus a real person? What is Advent?
