The survival of a parish relies on the generosity of its parishioners' time, talents and treasures.
Without such generosity, we, as a parish church, could not function. The good Lord rewards you for your generosity and sacrifice. Thank you to those who faithfully use their envelopes in church, and those who catch up by sending in their donations each week through the mail or dropping them off in the Rectory. We are also very grateful to our ministries who keep the people of our parish actively involved. And lastly, thank you to our selfless volunteers who always assist us in every way they can. OLV Parish is truly blessed.

LIVING THE CATHOLIC FAITH by Bishop Donald Hying

As we usher in November, we observe nature surrendering to the annual cycle of death. Leafless trees, harvested fields, shorter days, and cold nights. The liturgy of the Church embraces this mystery as well. We pray for and remember the dead, the Readings for Mass speak of the end of the world, and we reflect on the final judgment as we come once again to the end of the liturgical year on the Feast of Christ the King (the last Sunday before the first Sunday of Advent). The Church invites us to meditate on the brevity of this life, the mystery of death, and the promise of eternity.

We fear death as the great unknown. It doesn't feel like part of God's plan for us. The book of Genesis, chapter 3, views death as the fruit of sin, as the ultimate consequence of humanity's choice to turn away from the life-giving relationship with God that sustains all things in breath and being.

The Resurrection of Christ from the dead becomes the Father's response to this radical sacrificial gift offered by the Son. When the centurion pierces the side of the Crucified Christ, blood and water flow out, symbolizing the torrent of mercy and forgiveness that we most profoundly encounter in the water of Baptism and Body and Blood of the Eucharist. Life conquers death; mercy overpowers sin; love transforms hatred. God suffers with us, dies with us, and ultimately rises for us.

This Week on Formed

Week of November 02, 2025

ETERNAL REST™

THE ART OF DYING WELL

Eternal Rest

We all have very real questions about death. What happens when we die? What does Scripture teach about death? How do we prepare for the life to come? Explore the mystery of death, dying, and everlasting life through Eternal Rest, a new offering of the Augustine Institute.

Litany of the Faithful Departed

Join us in praying the Litany of the Faithful Departed, asking for God to have mercy on those who have gone before us. This is a great prayer to offer for your loved ones who have passed away or anyone who has passed away.

Saint Charles Borromeo: The Good Shepherd

As the Cardinal-nephew of Pope Pius IV, Saint Charles Borromeo was one of the wealthiest and most powerful men in all of Rome. Yet he chose the extraordinary challenge of reforming the enormous Archdiocese of Milan to the pampered life of a Renaissance prince, and willingly spent himself in the service of his flock.

Our parish has a Formed subscription.
