Respect for Life Prayer

O God, our eyes behold the beauty of your creation,
and our ears catch the sounds of your power.

We hold our lives sacred because they are your gift.
Bring us to greater awareness of the sanctity of human life and to sorrow for the times we have ignored or offended it.

We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.

The survival of a parish relies on the generosity
of its parishioners' time, talents and treasures.
Without such generosity, we, as a parish church, could not function. The good Lord rewards you for your generosity and sacrifice. Thank you to those who faithfully use their envelopes in church, and those who catch up by sending in their donations
each week through the mail or dropping them off in the Rectory. We are also very grateful to our ministries who keep the people of our parish actively involved. And lastly, thank you to our selfless volunteers who always assist us in every way they can. OLV Parish is truly blessed.

*"Each one must give as he has decided in his heart,
not reluctantly or under compulsion,
for God loves a cheerful giver." - 2 Corinthians 9:7*

Small Steps to Big Change

When making big changes in our life, it can be easier to break it up into a few small changes to avoid being overwhelmed.

When we decide that it's time for big changes in our lives, it is wise to ease into them by starting small. Small changes allow us to grow into a new habit and make it a permanent part of our lives. Sudden changes may cause a sense of failure that makes it difficult to continue, and then, we are more likely to revert to our old ways. If we have gone that route and find ourselves contemplating the choice to start over again, we can decide to take it slowly this time and move forward.

Sometimes, the goals we set for ourselves are merely indicators of the need for change and are useful in getting us to move in the right direction. But we may find that the change doesn't actually suit us or make us feel the way we had hoped. By embarking on the path slowly, we have the chance to look around and consider other options as we learn and grow. We have time to examine the underlying values of the desire for change and find ways to manifest those feelings, whether it looks exactly like our initial goal or not. Taking small steps forward gives us time to adjust and find secure footing on our new path.

Life doesn't always give us the opportunity to anticipate or prepare for a big change, and at times, we may find ourselves overwhelmed by what is in front of us. By choosing to work on one thing at a time, we focus our attention on something manageable, and eventually, we will look up to see that we have accomplished quite a bit. Forcing change is, in essence, a sign that we do not trust the universe's wisdom. Instead, we can listen to our inner guidance and make changes at a pace that is right for us, ensuring that we do so in alignment with the rhythm of the universe.

THE WORD IN LITURGY

The second Sunday in Ordinary Time functions in the liturgical cycle as a kind of bridge, linking what has gone before with what is to come. Last Sunday's celebration of the Baptism of the Lord marked the close of the Christmas season, and began the first week in Ordinary Time. On this Sunday, in each year of the lectionary cycle, the gospel is taken from John. These readings always connect in some way with the mystery of the incarnation which has been to the fore throughout the Christmas season. On the following Sunday, the gospel begins to tell the story of Jesus' ministry.
