The survival of a parish relies on the generosity of its parishioners' time, talents and treasures.
Without such generosity, we, as a parish church, could not function. The good Lord rewards you for your generosity and sacrifice. Thank you to those who faithfully use their envelopes in church, and those who catch up by sending in their donations each week through the mail or dropping them off in the Rectory. We are also very grateful to our ministries who keep the people of our parish actively involved. And lastly, thank you to our selfless volunteers who always assist us in every way they can. OLV Parish is truly blessed.

Give, and it will be given to you. Good measure, pressed down, shaken together, running over, will be put into your lap. For with the measure you it will be measured back to you. — Luke 6:38

CATHOLIC DOCTRINE

The Mystery of the Church

The Latin term for church, ecclesia, means “to call out of”, referring to an assembly of people or a gathering together, the people of God who are constituted in Christ by the work of the Holy Spirit. This Church is a visible reality, an organized society that can be seen and heard in this world and our history, and yet it is also a spiritual reality which transcends this world and time as the medium of divine life (CCC 770).

As God’s medium bearing divine life, the Church has been described by the Second Vatican Council as a mystery, “in the nature of sacrament — a sign and instrument, that is, of communion with God and of unity among all...” (LG 1). The depths of this mystery are founded upon Christ and the work of the Holy Spirit, and therefore this mystery which is the Church continues to grow toward maturity as it longs for the fullness of the completed kingdom of God (LG 5).

Thus, the Council described the Church as a sheepfold, the “sole and necessary gateway to which is Christ.” It also used the image of a cultivated field of God — a choice vineyard wherein Christ is the vine and we are the branches — to describe the Church. The Council described the Church as the building of God whose foundation is Jesus Christ, the stone rejected by the builders but which is now the cornerstone of the whole edifice of the house of God, the dwelling place of the divine among people, and the holy temple come down from heaven.

The whole purpose of the Church can be summarized as serving the plan of God to bring all people into communion with the divine. The missionary mandate is at the heart of the good news proclaimed by the Church in all its activities, sacraments, and outreach (CCC 849 and AG 1). Our Catholic understanding of the goal of the Church, therefore, is that it is called to make holy the members of Christ’s body (CCC 772). — Copyright © Foundations in Faith, RCL

LABORERS NEEDED

Today’s scriptures employ mixed metaphors—images of sheep and shepherds, priests and people, harvest and laborers—all of which intermingle to create a web of meaning on which we have based our understanding of Christian vocations. Above all, these images help us see Christian vocations as an extension and expression of Jesus’ own ministry in the world. They lend themselves especially well to a reflection on the vocation to ordained priesthood. The scriptures for today help us understand the role of the ordained in the life of the Church. They also encourage us to pray for an increase in the number of candidates for priestly ordination, for “the harvest is abundant but the laborers are few” (Matthew 9:37).
