OUR PARISH MISSION STATEMENT

Our Lady of Victories Roman Catholic Parish is a community of the faithful, committed to celebrating and communicating the spirit of Jesus, not only by our words, but also by our actions. Together, we will strive to continue Christ's mission: to teach, to bless, to heal, and to reconcile one another to the Father through the power of the Holy Spirit.

The survival of a parish relies on the generosity of its parishioners' time, talents and treasures. Without such generosity, we, as a parish church, could not function. The good Lord rewards you for your generosity and sacrifice. Thank you to those who faithfully use their envelopes in church, and those who catch up by sending in their donations each week through the mail or dropping them off in the Rectory. We are also very grateful to our ministries who keep the people of our parish actively involved. And lastly, thank you to our selfless volunteers who always assist us in every way they can. OLV Parish is truly blessed.

CATHOLIC CULTURE

Every Mass and almost every liturgy and communal prayer of Catholics begins with the words and gestures of the Sign of the Cross. This prayer formula proclaims our belief in a Trinitarian God in whose communion we share: "In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit." Blessings are also frequently rendered in a Trinitarian formula, whereupon Catholics sign themselves with the Sign of the Cross.

The early ecumenical councils of the Church were called in order to deal with heretical teachings regarding the Trinity. The Councils of Nicea and Constantinople I produced the Niceo-Constantinopolitan Creed, or simply, the Nicene Creed (ECathDoct 683). We proclaim this profession of faith every Sunday at Mass.

The following prayer expresses a mystical depth of communion with the Trinity: "O my God, Trinity whom I adore, help me forget myself so to establish myself in you ... as if my soul were already in eternity. May nothing be able to trouble my peace or make me leave you ... but may each minute bring me more deeply into your mystery! Grant my soul peace. Make it your heaven, your beloved dwelling ... May I never abandon you there, but may I be there, whole and entire ... adoring ... given over to your creative action". (ElizTPry)

MONTHLY MEMORIAL MASSES

Our Parish has a monthly Memorial Mass for the deceased on the first Monday of every Month. Those enrolled are prayed for once a month for one year. A large decorative Mass card is available. Contact the Parish Office for more details.

Jesus tells us something about shepherds today—they know their sheep and the sheep know their shepherds. How do they know one another so well—because they spend a lot of time together. Sheep take a lot of care and the shepherd is with his or her sheep 24 hours a day, seven days a week. Jesus is with us all the time and knows us better than we know ourselves (all the hairs on our heads are numbered—do any of us know ourselves that well?) If we don't know him very well, we need to spend more time with him; and that's called prayer.

THIS WEEK ON FORMED

Week of April 22, 2024

Part 2 of 2
Genesis

Genesis Part 2 | Old Testament: Book
Overviews | The Bible Project

Watch our overview video on Genesis 12-50, which breaks down the literary design of the book and its flow of thought. In Genesis, God promises to bless rebellious humanity through the family of Abraham, despite their constant failure and folly.

Lectio: Mark

Join Dr. Tim Gray in this powerful 14-part series to discover the Gospel of Mark like never before. Immerse yourself in this action-packed Gospel that offers Saint Peter's account of Christ's life and teaching. Combining the insights of Dr. Tim Gray with the masterful artistry of the Augustine Institute, this LECTIO series uses the Church's rich tradition of LECTIO DIVINA to help you better understand and better pray with the Gospel of Mark.

Beloved - Session 1: Does Marriage Matter?

Happy Feast of St. Valentine! This Valentine's Day, remind yourself of the beauty of the Sacrament of Marriage with the Beloved series, presented by the Augustine Institute.
