The survival of a parish relies on the generosity of its parishioners' time, talents and treasures. Without such generosity, we, as a parish church, could not function. The good Lord rewards you for your generosity and sacrifice. Thank you to those who faithfully use their envelopes in church, and those who catch up by sending in their donations each week through the mail or dropping them off in the Rectory. We are also very grateful to our ministries who keep the people of our parish actively involved. And lastly, thank you to our selfless volunteers who always assist us in every way they can. OLV Parish is truly blessed.

AN APPROACHABLE GOD

Many years ago, there was a very popular Christian poster that did nothing but list names for God from the scriptures. While it included powerful names like "Lion of Judah" and "Wonderful Counselor," as a whole it was a sharp contrast to the simple and beautiful images present in our scriptures today. The prophet Zechariah prefigures the Christ coming in meekly and mildly on an ass—the vision we might have of Palm Sunday. In Romans Saint Paul reveals to us our truer selves, calling us to embrace the Spirit of Christ, put aside our fleshly beings, and live more fully in Christ. In the Gospel of Matthew, Jesus bypasses the learned, and God reveals things to the childlike. We are presented with a simple, straightforward approach to God, and to finding God.

WE ARE HIS WITNESSES

An Update from Cardinal Tobin: (Part II)

Where are we now? Where is God calling us to go? How do we get there together?

We have a better sense of where we are now, based upon the feedback you have so generously provided since we began We Are His Witnesses. So, where is God calling us to go? I believe the Lord is calling us to recognize where our parishes fall short, where the Archdiocese is not present or has not succeeded in leading others to Jesus Christ, and then to work more closely together to respond more faithfully to the needs of the people God loves so much.

What about the third question: How do we get there together? After prayer, consultation, and careful reflection on all that has been shared, I am inviting every parish community in the Archdiocese of Newark to enter a new phase of We Are His Witnesses, which emphasizes collaboration through Parish Mission Partners. These partnerships will bring neighboring parishes together to pray, reflect, and discover concrete ways to share the Gospel, strengthen parish life, and serve their neighborhood. Working together, the partners will seek practical ways to support ministry in evangelization and outreach, pastoral care, and long-term sustainability. Some partnerships may focus on outreach to youth and young adults. Others may work together to promote social justice, lifelong faith formation, or other forms of shared pastoral services.

In some cases, communities may discern that a new configuration, including merger with another parish, offers the best path forward. Remember that a parish merger does not necessarily mean a church must close or that the unique culture and identity of a parish community will be irrevocably lost. To be continued
