The survival of a parish relies on the generosity of its parishioners' time, talents and treasures. Without such generosity, we, as a parish church, could not function. The good Lord rewards you for your generosity and sacrifice. Thank you to those who faithfully use their envelopes in church, and those who catch up by sending in their donations each week through the mail or dropping them off in the Rectory. We are also very grateful to our ministries who keep the people of our parish actively involved. And lastly, thank you to our selfless volunteers who always assist us in every way they can. OLV Parish is truly blessed.

"Offer right sacrifices, and put your trust in the Lord"—Psalm 45

My dear sisters and brothers in Christ,

Mary, the Merciful Lady, helps us to seek and find love and forgiveness through her Son. Mary is the Mother of Mercy because she leads us to Jesus. Images of Mary such as the Icon of Our Lady of Perpetual Help, for which we Redemptorists are privileged to serve as guardians, and the miraculous image of Our Lady of Guadalupe, both show that Mary is not a goddess, the one to be worshipped, because she casts down her eyes and points to her Son, to goodness and salvation in Him.

There is a tendency today to discredit Mary, claiming that devotion to her “keeps women in their place,” in a submissive or secondary role. In fact, the Magnificat boldly proclaims the opposite. Mary is strong. She is called blessed by all generations because of the mighty works done through her by God’s Providence.

Mary changes hearts. She leads us to her Son and helps us to recognize him as our Redeemer. Mary, Our Lady of Guadalupe, is the patron saint of the Americas. Millions of Catholics and members of other Christian denominations look to her for protection from all the evils that threaten them, including illness and disease, poverty, violence, and economic or social unrest. Her words to Juan Diego, “Do not be afraid. Am I not here, your mother?” show her mercy and compassion. These are words that all of us can take to heart no matter what our circumstances are or what is causing us to be anxious or afraid.

Mary, intercede for us, your children, and protect us from all evil through the redemptive work of your Son, Jesus. May we all remember to turn to you and implore your assistance in times of trouble, loneliness, or fear.

Sincerely yours in Christ the Redeemer,
Cardinal Joseph W. Tobin, C.Ss.R.
Archbishop of Newark

Thank You!!!!
