OUR PARISH MISSION STATEMENT

Our Lady of Victories Roman Catholic Parish is a community of the faithful, committed to celebrating and communicating the spirit of Jesus,
not only by our words, but also by our actions.

Together, we will strive to continue Christ's mission:
to teach, to bless, to heal, and to reconcile one another to the Father through the power of the Holy Spirit.

The survival of a parish relies on the generosity of its parishioners' time, talents and treasures. Without such generosity, we, as a parish church, could not function. The good Lord rewards you for your generosity and sacrifice. Thank you to those who faithfully use their envelopes in church, and those who catch up by sending in their donations each week through the mail or dropping them off in the Rectory. We are also very grateful to our ministries who keep the people of our parish actively involved. And lastly, thank you to our selfless volunteers who always assist us in every way they can. OLV Parish is truly blessed.

*"Each one must give as he has decided in his heart,
not reluctantly or under compulsion,
for God loves a cheerful giver." - 2 Corinthians 9:7*

What is Joy?

The third Sunday of Advent is traditionally called Gaudete Sunday; gaudete means “let us rejoice” in Latin. We light the rose candle on this day to mark the fact that we are now closer to Christmas than the beginning of Advent. Jesus is near, and so we rejoice! In our world that is often marked by fear, darkness, and sadness, we Christians are called to be prophetically joyful.

What is joy, and how do we get more of it in our lives? Sometimes, life just feels too heavy and the burdens too great for us to be light in spirit and hopeful about the future of the world. But faith roots us in a destiny and purpose far greater than we can imagine. Understanding and embracing joy helps us through the dark nights of life. When we contrast joy with pleasure, satisfaction and happiness, it helps toward a greater understanding.

When we know that we are loved by God, when we have encountered His tender mercy, when we realize our deepest identity as beloved children of the Father, we experience the joy of the Kingdom of Heaven. No suffering, setback or sadness can rob us of joy if we stay rooted in the love of the Lord. We may lose all pleasure, satisfaction and happiness, but no one and nothing can take away our joy without our permission.

When we are tempted to let life rob us of peace and joy, we need to focus on the truth and meaning of Advent and Christmas: God coming to us in the poverty of our human condition; Jesus embracing everything within us that was lost, dark, and dead; the Lord opening us to mercy, forgiveness, and eternal life.

We know how the story of our lives and the history of the world will end; we have the book of Revelation. God, life, love, and joy win out over the forces of sin and death. When we know who we are and where we are going, life becomes joyful for us. As Saint Catherine of Siena said, “All the way to heaven is heaven because Christ is the Way.”

Prayer of the Week

Lord, come and save us. For all who are blind, open their eyes to the light of your promises. For all who are feeble or lame, strengthen their limbs that they might follow the path of truth and justice. For all who are dried up, quench their parched throats that their voices might bloom with songs of praise to you. For the broken and depleted, the crushed and downtrodden, lift and raise them from death's clutches. Amen.

Adventus: A Spiritual Pilgrimage

This Advent, make a spiritual pilgrimage to the Holy Land. Uncover the beauty of the place where Christ was born, preparing your heart for Christ's coming so you can enter more deeply into this season.

30 Minutes B.C.
A Nativity Play

30 Minutes BC creatively explores the profound emotions and intimate struggles of Mary and Joseph during the final 30 minutes before the birth of Jesus. As the clock ticks down, the couple navigates a whirlwind of hope, joy, and uncertainty, turning to God amidst it all.

Is Christmas Pagan? What Catholics Believe About Christmas

Dr. Michael Barber answers some of the Internet's most asked questions about Christmas. Is Christmas a pagan holiday? Why is Christmas celebrated on December 25? What happened at the "first Christmas"? Find out the answers to these and more!
